Change of Central Securities Depository to Euroclear France

FL Entertainment announces that it has changed the Central Securities Depository (CSD) for its ordinary shares (NL0015000X07) and public warrants (NL0015000H56) (together the “Transferred Securities”) from Euroclear Netherland to Euroclear France, effective today.

As a result of this change, all Transferred Securities previously held in the Euroclear Netherland system have been transferred to the book-entry securities settlement system operated by Euroclear France. The transfer and change of CSD does not impact the Transferred Securities' respective ISIN codes, nor their holdings, the rights attached to them or their listing on Euronext Amsterdam.
